

WILLIAM RHEM JR.

MOVEMENT DIRECTOR

CONTACT

- 917-284-5111
- info@willrhemjr.com
- New York, NY
- www.willrhemjr.com

PROFILE

An innovative and creative director of all things movement. William is a multi-hyphenate performance and creative artist, hailing from the Gullah Islands of Beaufort, SC. He has performed and created movement all around the world and is one of NYC's most hidden gems. He is currently an Adjunct Asst Professor of Movement at Columbia University School of the Arts.

SKILLS

PROFESSIONAL

- Movement for Stage and Camera
- Production Management
- Movement Education
- Creativity & Direction
- Professional Experience
- Interpersonal Skills
- Effective Communication

EDUCATION

B.S. PSYCHOLOGY

Bethune-Cookman Univ
2008-2012

NATIONAL TRAINING CURR.

American Ballet Theatre
2019

WORKING EXPERIENCE

• ADJUNCT ASST. PROFESSOR

Columbia University | 2025

- Professor of Movement in the Graduate School of Acting at Columbia University.
- Bridging the gap between movement and acting
- Exploration of physical storytelling

• MOVEMENT ASSOCIATE

2021 - 2024

Harry Potter and The Cursed Child on Broadway

- Teaching movement from a Broadway show to actors
- Creating and leading movement based warm ups
- Managing and maintaining the artistic integrity of a professional Broadway production.

• ASST. DIRECTOR OF DANCE

2019-2021

Harlem School of the Arts

- Managing the department of dance
- Creating innovative and educational programming
- Choreographing school productions and teaching dance classes such as "Broadway Dance"